WITH HIS FAMILY—Leon Young and family, of Del Rio, Texas, are guests at the Commercial.

POSTPONED—City council meeting to canvass the returns from the late primary did not occur yesterday. No quorum.

TOMBSTONE MAN HERE—W. G. Gilmore, a prominent resident of Tombstone is at the Adams for a few days.

FROM ALBUQUERQUE—Robert E. Dietz, who is in Albuquerque when at home is visiting in Phoenix, at stops at the Adams.

FROM CAPITAL CITY—From the capital of New Mexico at Santa Fe to the capital of the sister state comes Charles E. Doll who is a guest at the Commercial Hotel.

CAME BY AUTO—J. J. Brown, a prominent mining man, of Tucson, drove his machine over from that city. Mr. Brown is stopping at the Ford while in Phoenix.

COMPANY A INSPECTED—An inspection of Company A, N. G. A. was held last night at the armory. Lieutenant F. F. Jewett, recently assigned national guard instructor for Arizona, presiding. There was a record breaking attendance and the company showed up well in the drill.

NOT HIS BIKE—Some folks own bicycles, others achieve bikes and a few have bikes thrust upon them. To the latter class E. D. Welsh, of 709 North First street belongs. He has a bike which is not "his." He has asked the police to help him find the owner.

DIAMOND EXPERT—F. L. Criswell registers from the Congo Free State, Africa, and is said to be a diamond expert. Criswell is stopping at the Commercial and is going to investigate a near diamond mine which is optimistically located in the Cave Creek district.

LIKES US—Harry M. Swank, assistant secretary of the board of trade at Boise City is spending a few days looking over the Salt River valley. The man from Idaho is so favorably impressed with the business and residential possibilities here that he may decide to forsake the frigid north and locate in the valley.

HONK! HONK!—The latest member of the county official family to succumb to the lure of the honk wagon is his honor, Judge J. C. Phillips, of the superior court. The judge lives a little ways in the suburbs and figures that the minutes which the auto will save him in transportation can be devoted to the duties of his office. The court bought his license yesterday and is taking lessons in running the critter in a forty acre sub division near his home.

IN WASHINGTON—Judge E. W. Lewis, former district judge at Globe, and now a member of the firm of Armstrong and Lewis, of this city, has arrived in Washington and will appear before the senate sub-judiciary committee this morning representing former Governor Sloan.

EASTER PARTY—The Easter party given last evening by the Knights of Pythias at the K. P. hall was one of the pleasantest events of the lodge season. There was a large attendance, many children and women adding to the number of the elect. A musical program, refreshments and other enjoyable features marked the evening.

NEW LIGHT STANDARDS—The new light standards for the but-tresses in front of the Water Users' building arrived and were set up yesterday, having been delayed some weeks in shipment. The style is mission, with heavy block bases and a straight square column supporting a single round frosted globe. They were lighted for some time yesterday afternoon in order to break them in and let people know they were there.

TREAD WIDE PATH—Officer A. E. Egley nipped the budding career of Jose Buteras, and Francisco Robles close to the bud yesterday afternoon when the men attempted to dispose of a watch at a Washington street business house. The watch, by a curious coincidence bore the same number as a time piece reported stolen from an employee at the sugar factory near Glendale. The men were taken to the city jail and later turned over to the custody of deputy Sheriff Radd, of Glendale.

DISTRICT COURT—Judge William H. Hunt, of the Commerce court at Washington, who has been designated by the chief justice of the United States to hold the United States district court in Arizona until Judge Sloan's confirmation, has made an order directing the clerk to adjourn court from April 15 to April 16, as it will be impossible for him to reach Phoenix before Tuesday morning. Grand jurors and witnesses summoned to report on Monday are being directed that their services will not be needed until Tuesday.

NEW CITIZEN—Fred John Miller, honorably discharged soldier of the United States filed his application for citizenship in the office of the United States district court yesterday. Under the law a discharged soldier is exempt from the necessity of filing preliminary papers, his single application together with his discharge papers acting to the same effect as final papers in other cases. Miller lives in Mowry, Arizona, and renounces allegiance to William II, Emperor of Germany. Judge Hunt will have quite a class of prospective citizens to examine and pass upon during the coming term of court.

HIGH FINANCING—This is the season of the year when the city officials take their pens in hand and do a little ground and lofty figuring. As a result of this exercise there are invariably orders to cut the corners as much as possible until the dawn of the new fiscal year. One of the methods of retrenchment whereby the city is saving several hundred dollars a month is in the economical use of street lights. Last night several of the ornate lights were "cut out" altogether and they are all extinguished at ten of the clock. The swinging arm lights are burned until one a. m. when they are dark until four o'clock.

LIKED THE GOODS—Delero Moro has an eye for the artistic. He was passing a store on East Washington street late yesterday afternoon when a host of brightly designed calico caught his eye. Perhaps he thought how sweet his best girl would look in a frock from the material. He looked, and looked. Then he fingered the goods with the dignity of a connoisseur. The next view those in the vicinity had of the man and the calico they were headed down stream, going fast enough to make up lost time. The Mexican was finally run to earth in an alley, and Chief Moore and Captain Bristol put the finishing touches upon his escape. A charge of petty larceny is preferred.

SUPREME COURT—In the case of Ramon Escudero appellant vs. the S. P. railroad company appeal from Cochise county, the judgment of the lower court was affirmed. In the case of the state ex rel Bullard attorney general vs. Sidney Sapp who was declared superior judge of Navajo county, the petitioner was allowed to withdraw his petition without prejudice, with leave to file a petition requesting the appointment of a commissioner to take testimony. The case is a quo warranto proceeding brought in the interest of Thorwald Larson the democratic candidate for superior judge at the recent election, who claims to have received a majority of the legal votes cast.

A NEW BARBER SHOP—Rather, it is a new owner in an old shop. The proprietor is W. F. Meier and the location is on West Washington street opposite the office of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. Mr. Meier is by no means a stranger in the city as he has had charge of the Eagle barber shop next the Gass chop house for the last six years, for the owner Mr. Seaton. Mr. Meier has decided to go into business on his own account and having made a success as a manager for another, sees no reason why he should not do equally as well on his own account. He will try at least to bring into his new business all the inducements of a genial personality and wide and successful experience in his trade.

KEARNY'S BODY REACHES CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—A special train with the funeral car containing the body of Gen. Phil Kearny arrived in Washington from New York this afternoon and was met by a detachment of troops from Fort Meyer. A funeral trolley car especially prepared for the occasion was in waiting and on this the coffin was placed and transported to Arlington National Cemetery. The ceremonies at the grave will include a dirge by the army band, a prayer by the Grand Army chaplain, and an oration by Corporal James Tanner. Later a magnificent monument will be erected over the grave of Gen. Kearny.

UNITED STATES LICENSED INDIAN TRADER
Prop. Big Curio on Adams St.

PROGRESSIVE MEET.

HELENA, April 12.—When the republican state committee declared for Taft and told the Roosevelt men of Montana to go to Hel—ena, the latter decided to do so, and they are here in force today to hold a progressive republican state convention. The followers of Roosevelt and his campaign manager, Senator Dixon of this state, launched a campaign to secure control of the county conventions that will name the delegates to the state convention, in the hope that they may override the central committee and send a delegation to Chicago instructed for Roosevelt.

The virtues of a fine store with a superior stock are lost if you are not properly served when you go there—the people who are here to serve you are competent — painstaking and courteous.

GRADE TEACHERS.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 12.—Twin city educators have taken the initiative in a movement to organize a national federation of grade teachers, and will hold a meeting here today to consider a tentative constitution for the proposed nationwide association. The federation is intended to unite the grade teachers of the United States so that salary increase and betterment of conditions may be urged with greater force. Final organization will be completed at the National Educational association's meeting in Chicago this summer.

BRYAN TO ADDRESS HOUSERS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 12.—William J. Bryan will be the chief speaker at the Jefferson day banquet of Indiana democrats, to be held here tonight. The dinner is to be held this evening, rather than tomorrow, Jefferson's birthday, because the Nebraska statesman has an engagement to speak before the National democratic club's Jefferson dinner in New York tomorrow night. Speaker Clark refused an invitation to come here on the ground that Gov. Marshall is a candidate for the presidential nomination, and he does not want to poach on the preserves of any "favorite son."

TWIGS OF HISTORIC ELM.

Cleveland, O., April 12.—Grafts from the famous Washington elm at Cambridge, Mass., one of the few historical trees left in the United States, were planted here today of a feature of the Arbor day exercises of Cleveland children.

The Cement Workers' Concrete company has removed to 29 East Adams street, Adams Hotel building.
